Reports to: Clinical Supervisor and CEO

Company information:

NESSIE IN ED CIC aims to support for children and young people's emotional and mental health by providing a range of therapeutic services; being based in educational settings; supporting families; supporting staff and linking closely with other services and the national agenda.

We are a people first, not for profit organisation who values diversity.

Job purpose

This job has arisen due to increasing concern about children and young people's (CYP) mental health across Cambridgeshire and Peterborough as a result of the pandemic. The role will draw on your clinical knowledge to support a specialist Family Support Worker (early help) with the safe delivery of a strategy of practical help, emotional and mental health support and training workshops for families of children and young people who self-harm in the region.

Early Help Parenting Support Service

The Service will deliver a range of support, signposting and workshops to parents/Carers of CYP who are experiencing difficulties with their emotional wellbeing and mental health. The Service will cover relevant topics and will enable parents to:

Helping children and young people thrive

- Support their CYP with strategies and guidance around their emotional wellbeing whilst they are waiting to access and during a period of support within emotional wellbeing and mental health services
- Recognise Hidden Harm e.g., parental anxiety that may be impacting the CYP's wellbeing
- Spot the signs of a deterioration in emotional wellbeing in their CYP
- Supportive the development and strengthening of resilience within their CYP and wider family

Main duties and responsibilities

Your role will be to draw on your clinical knowledge to support the Specialist Family Support Worker (FSW) with the safe running of a strategy to:

- Provide regular training workshops
- Support parents' wellbeing and mental health
- Reduce stigma to parents who have children who self-harm
- Reduce parental anxiety
- Provide telephone advice and signposting
- Provide face to face advice
- Provide support while on the waiting list for CAMHS

Your duties will include:

- Supporting the FSW with evaluating and assessing caseload needs and monitoring progress.
- Overseeing complex cases including completing assessments of those families' needs to identify and planning the support needed and undertaking regular caseload review meetings with individuals and families during home and community visits to ensure they're fully supported to progress and achieve desired outcomes.
- Providing 1-1 family therapy for complex cases
- Supporting the FSW with developing and leading the training of specialist parent / carer workshops and running support groups where needed i.e. for siblings
- Supporting the FSW with coaching, mentoring and motivating families to understand the benefits of relevant activities

Helping children and young people thrive

- Working in partnership with local commissioned and voluntary sector services, colleagues, and other health and social care professionals and multi-agency networks
- Managing your own workload, administration and diary commitments
- Maintaining accurate and up-to-date administration and caseload records, including reports of all interactions

General:

- To contribute to the development of best practice within the service.
- To maintain up-to-date knowledge of legislation, national and local policies and procedures in relation to Mental Health and Primary Care Services.
- All employees have a duty and responsibility for their own health and safety and the health of safety of colleagues, patients and the general public.
- All employees have a responsibility and a legal obligation to ensure that information processed for both patients and staff is kept accurate, confidential, secure and in line with the Data Protection Act (1998) and Security and Confidentiality Policies.
- It is the responsibility of all staff that they do not abuse their official position for personal gain, to seek advantage of further private business or other interests in the course of their official duties.
- It will be the duty of every employee while at work to take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and of other people who may be affected by their acts or omissions at work

What to expect from this role

- Your work will usually be split between the office, home working, attending meetings, organising your workload, typing reports and updating caseload activities, and the family's home.
- The role can be emotionally draining as you could be dealing with sensitive and traumatic issues. In some cases, the family may not be ready to engage with you, and therefore not all interactions will have a positive outcome. However, enabling families to overcome wide-ranging challenges and difficult situations means that your role can be extremely varied and highly rewarding.
- You will need a driving license and your own vehicle

The duties and responsibilities listed above describe the post as it is at present. The post holder is expected to accept any reasonable alterations that may from time to time be necessary.
