Welcome

Our service has an exciting opportunity to join our team as an Arts Therapist, either as a PAYE member of the team or on a freelance basis.

The post-holder will be carrying out clinical work across education and community settings in specific geographical locations. The role requires the post-holder to provide interventions for children, young people or families using child centred, evidence-based interventions. The post holder will work with people with different cultural backgrounds and ages and should be committed to equity, diversity and inclusion. Supervision, Travel Expenses and CPD provided.

Company information:

NESSIE IN ED CIC (Nessie) aims to support for children and young people's emotional and mental health by providing a range of therapeutic services; being based in educational settings; supporting families; supporting staff and linking closely with other services and the national agenda.

We are a people first, not for profit organisation who values diversity.

About the role

The role is best suited for applicants that can work autonomously, balancing a busy caseload, including travel and supervision.

Nessie provides counselling and arts therapies (Art, Drama, Music and Play) to support the mental health of children, young people and their families. You will be required to provide clinical work in a range of education and community settings face to face and online when needed.

Travelling between multiple settings is a requirement of the role. You are also required to attend termly staff meetings in person.

Purpose:

This job has arisen due to a rise in need from schools and families for targeted, coordinated therapeutic provision in schools (both mainstream and SEND settings) and community settings across Cambridgeshire and Hertfordshire. Successful candidates will work closely with other Nessie staff and in partnership with local agencies. This role is part of a strategic plan to increase support in line with local transformation plans.

Reporting to:

Operations Manager

Key Duties and Responsibilities:

- The provision of 1-1 and group Arts Therapy
- Travelling between settings to deliver targeted support
- To offer regular staff and parent meetings as appropriate
- Work closely with behaviour services, DSPL (Delivering Special Provision Locally) management, ASD/ SEND and local agencies and maintain positive working relationships with all individuals around the child providing support in line with IThrive model:
<https://www.healthyyoungmindsinherts.org.uk/professionals/what-ithrive>
- To work closely with Operations Manager to plan a systemic, transparent, and fair support across the area with consultation from statutory services.
- Attend regular supervision and termly staff meetings
- To work closely as part of a small team to gather feedback both qualitative and quantitative that informs the development work.

This Job Description does not provide an exhaustive list of duties and may be reviewed in conjunction with the post holder in light of service development.
