Company information:

NESSIE IN ED CIC aims to support children and young people's emotional and mental health by providing a range of therapeutic services; being based in educational settings; supporting families; supporting professionals and linking closely with other services and the national agenda.

We are a people first, not for profit organisation who values diversity.

Job purpose

As a Specialist Family Support Worker, alongside the Nessie team, you will offer emotional support, practical help, and facilitate workshops and peer support groups for, parents/carers of children and young people who are experiencing difficulties with their emotional wellbeing and mental health. Based from home and across Peterborough, this role is ideal for anyone hoping to make a positive impact on the lives of children, young people (CYP), and their families.

Early Help Parenting Support Service

The Service will deliver a range of support, signposting and workshops to parents/Carers of CYP who are experiencing difficulties with their emotional wellbeing and mental health. The Service will cover relevant topics and will enable parents to:

- Support their CYP with strategies and guidance around their emotional wellbeing whilst they are waiting to access and during a period of support within emotional wellbeing and mental health services
- Recognise Hidden Harm e.g., parental anxiety that may be impacting the CYP's wellbeing
- Spot the signs of a deterioration in emotional wellbeing in their CYP
- Supportive the development and strengthening of resilience within their CYP and wider family

Main duties and responsibilities

Helping children and young people thrive

Your role will vary depending on the needs of the family you're helping. You will be working alongside a team comprising of our project manager, training lead and a clinical lead. Administration and marketing will be supported by our in-house Operations Team. The focus of your role being to:

- Deliver online and face-to-face workshops and webinars
- Run peer support groups
- Provide face to face advice & support
- Provide telephone advice and signposting
- Support parents' wellbeing and mental health
- Reduce stigma to parents who have children who are experiencing emotional and mental health difficulties
- Reduce parental anxiety
- Support the clinical lead in providing regular training workshops online and face-to-face
- Provide support while on the waiting list for CAMHS
- Support parents on how to manage emotional and mental health difficulties, with a goal to build confidence, competence and positive relationships within the home
- Working collaboratively within a multidisciplinary team

Your duties will include:

- Completing initial assessments of families' needs so that you can identify and plan the support needed
- Undertaking regular caseload review meetings with individuals and families during home and community visits to ensure they're fully supported to progress and achieve desired outcomes
- Evaluating caseload needs and monitoring the progress that has been made
- Sharing advice, training and parenting skills in regular forums
- Enhancing parents' understanding of different strategies to identify and support the emotional and mental health of their children
- Coaching, mentoring and motivating families to understand the benefits of relevant activities
- Working in partnership with local commissioned and voluntary sector services, colleagues, and other health and social care professionals
- Managing your own workload, administration and diary commitments
- Maintaining accurate and up-to-date administration and caseload records, including reports of all interactions
- Adhering to professional practice standards and legislation, including confidentiality, safeguarding, equality, diversity and inclusion policies

Helping children and young people thrive

- Ensuring you're up to date with your knowledge of local service provision for appropriate signposting and referrals.

General:

- To contribute to the development of best practice within the service.
- To maintain up-to-date knowledge of legislation, national and local policies and procedures in relation to Mental Health and Primary Care Services.
- All employees have a duty and responsibility for their own health and safety and the health and safety of colleagues, patients and the general public.
- All employees have a responsibility and a legal obligation to ensure that information processed for both patients and staff is kept accurate, confidential, secure and in line with the Data Protection Act (1998) and Security and Confidentiality Policies.
- It is the responsibility of all staff that they do not abuse their official position for personal gain, to seek advantage of further private business or other interests in the course of their official duties.
- It will be the duty of every employee while at work to take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and of other people who may be affected by their acts or omissions at work

What to expect from this role

- Your work will usually be split between the office, home working, attending meetings, organising your workload, typing reports and updating caseload activities, and the family's home.
- The role can be emotionally draining as you could be dealing with sensitive and traumatic issues. In some cases, the family may not be ready to engage with you, and therefore not all interactions will have a positive outcome. However, enabling families to overcome wide-ranging challenges and difficult situations means that your role can be extremely varied and highly rewarding.
- You will need a driving license and your own vehicle
